It's hard to lose a parent, but it's also hard when our friends lose their parents; as they were also a part of our lives. I have so many good memories of hanging out at the Meeks' house. They were some of the best times of my life. I will always remember Gay with a smile on his face. He was always kind. If Sissy, Betty, and I ever got too loud playing records & singing upstairs (which was so cool, because that was the kids' space!), I don't remember him ever getting upset with us. I'm sure Gay is celebrating with his loved ones, who I am sure were waiting to greet him and welcome him home.
